

33RD IBBY INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS

CROSSING BOUNDARIES: TRANSLATIONS AND MIGRATIONS

London ~ August 2012

PRESS RELEASE OCTOBER 2011

We are delighted to announce that Registration is now open for this exciting International conference on children's literature to be held at Imperial College from 23 – 26th August 2012. See www.ibbycongress2012.org

In order to make it easier for delegates from the UK and around the world to attend this rare event (it's the first time it has been held in the UK for 30 years) we have begun registration early to allow delegates to spread the cost by paying in three instalments. Of course it's also possible to pay all in one go as well.

As well as the great line-up of speakers there will be seminars and discussions, round tables, professional meetings and exciting additional events such as the presentation of the Hans Christian Andersen Medal and the IBBY Asahi Award. The full programme will be announced in January. If you have submitted a paper you should know quite soon if it has been accepted.

We hope that you will be able to share this information through your regular networks and are very grateful for your help in spreading the word and encouraging people in the UK to attend. We would also like to thank The School Library Association and CILIP's School Libraries and Youth Libraries Groups for holding a joint conference next year in order to reduce the number of conferences on offer to librarians and teachers. We really appreciate the help of all the organisations who are so positive about the IBBY 2012 World Congress and the support you are giving us.

Thank you!
